

A Moments Wisdom 2001

The most important trip you may take in life is meeting people half way.

High station in life is earned by the gallantry with which appalling experiences are survived with grace.

Money and success don't change people; they merely amplify what is already there.

Love is what is left in a relationship after all the selfishness has been removed.

All TV is educational. The question is: What is it teaching?

The one thing worse than a quitter is the person who is afraid to begin.

Treat everyone you meet like you want to be treated.

Listening is a kindness everyone can show.

Lord, when we are wrong, make us willing to change. And when we are right, make us easy to live with.

To handle yourself, use your head; to handle others, use your heart.

People who do not recognize the value of the object of their worship, often do not exercise care in their worship.

Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace. And your best days are never so good that you're beyond the need of God's grace.

Anger is a condition in which the tongue works faster than the mind.

You can't change the past, but you can ruin the present by worrying over the future.

Everyone needs to be loved... especially when they do not deserve it.

The real measure of a man's wealth is what he has invested in eternity.

Everyone has beauty, but not everyone sees it.

It's important for parents to live the same things they teach.

Thank God for what you have, TRUST GOD for what you need.

If you fill your heart with regrets of yesterday and the worries of tomorrow, you will have no today to be thankful for.

If anyone speaks badly of you, live so none will believe it.

Patience is the ability to idle your motor when you feel like stripping your gears.

Love is strengthened by working through conflicts together.

The best thing parents can do for their children is to love each other.

Harsh words break no bones but they do break hearts.

To get out of a difficulty, one usually must go through it.

We take for granted the things that we should be giving thanks for.

Love is the only thing that can be divided without being diminished.

Happiness is enhanced by others but does not depend upon others.

For every minute you are angry with someone, you lose 60 seconds of happiness that you can never get back.

Do what you can, for who you can, with what you have, wherever you are.

What is intended as a little white lie often ends up as a double feature in Technicolor.

The giver always lives a richer life than the miser.

We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.

Going to church regularly is like making a path in the forest -- the more often you use it, the less obstructions you'll find in the way.

The greatest fault is to be conscious of none but other people's.

It's not the greatness of our trouble, but the littleness of our faith that makes us complain.

There is no pillow so soft as a clear conscience.

Everybody is wise after the thing has happened.

There are some whose faith is not strong enough to bring them to services, but they expect it to take them to heaven.

Life's heaviest burden is to have nothing to carry.

Death is not a period, but a comma in the story of life.

Where one goes hereafter depends largely upon what one goes after here.

A Christian is free, but not free to sin.

The secret of being a saint is being a saint in secret.

He who is born of God should grow to resemble his Father.

No man ever regretted Christianity on his deathbed.

The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt until they are too strong to be broken.

Before you give anyone a piece of your mind, you ought to be sure that you can get by with what you have left.

The largest room in the world is the room for improvement.

Many people have a good aim in life, but most of them don't know when to pull the trigger.

People do odd things to get even.

A lot of trouble in this world is caused by combining a narrow mind with a wide mouth.

It is wrong for a person to profess what he does not possess.

The teeth may be false, but let the tongue be true.

If you are unkind, you're the wrong kind.

Better alone than in bad company.

Either the Bible will keep you from sin or sin will keep you from the Bible.

You can't build a church with stumbling blocks.

An egotist is a person who is always me-deep in conversation.

Gossip is sharing private information with those who are not part of the problem nor part of the solution.

People who look down on their neighbors are usually living upon a bluff.

Some people grin and bear it. Others smile and change it.

Some women work so hard to make good husbands that they never quite manage to make good wives.

Can't sleep? Try counting your blessings.

Christians keep the faith; But not from others.

Satan subtracts and divides. God adds and multiplies.

If you do not want to reap the fruits of sin, stay out of the Devil's orchard.

To belittle is to be little.

Try Jesus. If you don't like Him, Satan will always take you back.

It's not what you know about Jesus that counts; it's what you do with Him.

A Christian must keep the faith -- but not to himself.

Life is not a problem to be solved, but a gift to be enjoyed.

Sin will take you farther than you ever wanted to go, keep you longer than you ever wanted to stay, and cost you more than you ever wanted to pay.

Do all you can and trust God to do what you cannot.

People who look for the easy way out seem to have trouble finding an exit.

Character is like the foundation of a house... it's below the surface.

Life is measured by its depth, not its duration.

Preach the gospel at all times. Use words if necessary.

Prevent truth decay. Brush up on your Bible.

Don't give up. Moses was once a basket case.

Life has many choices; Eternity only has two... What's yours?

The wages of sin is death. Repent before payday.

What part of "THOU SHALT NOT" don't you understand?

One of the great disadvantages of hurry is that it takes such a long time.

Worry is like a rocking chair -- it will give you something to do, but it won't get you anywhere.

Praise loudly; blame softly.

Courage is fear that has said its prayers.

Beware of half-truths; you may have hold of the wrong half.

The man who expects to get to heaven should take the trouble to study the route that will take him there.

Poverty: A state of mind induced by the neighbor's new car.

We all admire the wisdom of people who come to us for advice.

Peace is not made in documents, but in the hearts of men.

Most of the foot prints left in the sands of time have been made by work shoes.
