- Hebrew “avon” - “perversity, depravity, iniquity, guilt or punishment of iniquity; guilt of condition” (Strong’s H5771)

Implications Of Greater Sins

- This does not mean that some sins are consequential and others are not
- What do the scriptures teach?
  - Eve only ate one piece of fruit
  - Lot's wife only took a single gaze backward
  - The Israelite only picked up a few sticks on the Sabbath
  - Achan only took a small wedge of gold and a robe
  - Uzzah only put one hand on the Ark of the Covenant

Implications Of Greater Sins

- All sin, whether large or small in Bible description or our own estimation, will keep one out of heaven.
  - Heb. 2:1-3 - “Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, 3 how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him”
  - John 8:21 - “Then Jesus said to them again, I am going away, and you will seek Me, and will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come.”
  - Rev. 21:27 - “But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.”

Implications Of Greater Sins

- Any un-repented sin is enough to render one a sinner, cause him to be lost, and to void all the good things he did toward an eternal reward
  - James 2:10 - “For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all.”
- Humankind presumes to classify sins on behalf of God
  - Murder, adultery, and stealing are big sins, great evils
  - Jealousy, random dishonesty, and gossip are little sins, character flaws

Implications Of Greater Sins

- Was the prodigal son worse than the older brother? - Luke 15:11-32
- “There is no little sin, because there is no little God to sin against.” (Matthew Henry)
- “There is no distinction between big and little when talking about snakes. They are all snakes.” (Indian proverb)

All Sins Are Resolved By The Same Means

- Just as all sin will bring death...
  - Rom. 6:23 - “For the wages of sin is death...”
  - James 1:14-15 - “But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. 15 Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death.”
  - Ez. 18:20 - “The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.”

All Sins Are Resolved By The Same Means

- ...So will any sin, repented of scripturally and from the heart, be blotted out and forgiven, including greater sins
  - 1John 1:7-10 - “But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.”
  - Mark 3:28-30 - “Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter; 29 but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation”

All Sins Are Resolved By The Same Means

- Sins are greater because of the condition of the heart from whence they come
- Sins are greater in that they are greater in their temporal consequences and by the number of vulnerable persons impacted by them.
  - 1John 3:15 - “Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.”

All Sins Are Resolved By The Same Means

- Sins are greater in that the punishment is often proportionate to the sin and the heart of the sinner
  - Luke 12:47-48 - “And that servant who knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. 48 But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.”

All Sins Are Resolved By The Same Means

- The punishment in eternity will not be less in duration, only in degree and extent of sorrow over regrets
  - Matt. 25:46 - “And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”
  - 2Peter 2:20-21 - “For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.”
- We are not just punished for our sins; we are punished by them

What are “Greater Sins”?

- God is waiting to forgive us of all sins, even the greater ones
  - Matt. 18:11-14 - “For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost. 12 What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying? 13 And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.”
- “When we stray from His presence, He longs for us to come back. He weeps that we are missing His active love, protection and provision. He throws His arms open, reaches toward us, gathers us up, and welcomes us home.” (C. Stanley)
