

The image features three lit candles in a dark setting, casting a warm, golden light. Below the candles, several playing cards are scattered on a dark surface, along with a pile of coins. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and contemplative.

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24

Philip proclaims Christ and performs signs.
Simon proclaims himself and practices magic.

Samaritans believe and are baptized.

Simon believes and is baptized.

Samaritans receive the Holy Spirit.

Simon tries to buy the power to bestow the Spirit.

Peter Rebukes Simon and tells him to repent and pray.

Simon asks Peter to pray for him.

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24

Philip proclaims Christ and performs signs.
Simon proclaims himself and practices magic.

Samaritans believe and are baptized.

Simon believes and is baptized.

Samaritans receive the Holy Spirit.

Simon tries to buy the power to bestow the Spirit.

Peter Rebukes Simon and tells him to repent and pray.

Simon asks Peter to pray for him.

We see Luke's perspective, not Philip's.

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24

Philip proclaims Christ and performs signs.
Simon proclaims himself and practices magic.

Samaritans believe and are baptized.

Simon believes and is baptized.

Samaritans receive the Holy Spirit.

Simon tries to buy the power to bestow the Spirit.

Peter Rebukes Simon and tells him to repent and pray.

Simon asks Peter to pray for him.

We see an important contrast.

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24

Philip proclaims Christ and performs signs.
Simon proclaims himself and practices magic.

Samaritans believe and are baptized.

Simon believes and is baptized.

Samaritans receive the Holy Spirit.

Simon tries to buy the power to bestow the Spirit.

Peter Rebukes Simon and tells him to repent and pray.

Simon asks Peter to pray for him.

We see an important comparison.

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24

Conversion is not a point but a process.

Focus is a choice, and old habits make it harder.

Focus fills the heart. (Matthew 6:19–24)

Repentance follows misplaced focus. (1 Corinthians 3:1–4)

Is Your Heart Right?

Acts 8:5–24